

▲ 17 Liddiard Street, Hawthorn

One for those who love a bit of flamboyance, this double-fronted Victorian home radiates sophistication with its elaborate lead-lighting, granite kitchen, marble fireplace and claw foot bath. The living and dining room are a testament to early 1900s architecture with high ceilings, brass chandeliers and intricate ceiling roses.

A covered outdoor area offers easy entertaining. With its three large bedrooms and close proximity to some of Melbourne's finest schools, this house is perfect for a young family.
